NARRATIVE

After I took breakfast around 7 am and waiting for the elevator I was told by the building employees that it was me who own the stolen bike and I in shock went to check my bicycle outside and confirm its missing we went to the management office there is the head of security and another one probable the manager. And explicitly told them I don't like this lengthy process and maybe they can help me get a bike since I use it every day. Then they called the security guard on duty when my bike was stolen and I explicitly told everyone I don't like lengthy process specially this day because I have very important appointment. They made me write a rapport about my bike why it was there and handed me a request form for CCTV footage and instead of trying to help me they blamed me! Both of them management and the guard then I asked them what do they need, then I was sent for filing in Barangay, Police, and missed my very important appointment in my company.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

It happened at around 03:06 am security guard was at the scene when it happened 10ft away with clear view. They reported at police station as per record 4:33 am

I the owner wasn't informed until after my breakfast at around 7:30am by the employees while waiting for the elevator

We conduct meeting on the office building and initially claim they do not know who owns the bike. WHEREFORE I've been stating there for weeks with my bike, and never let me eat or get inside without seeing my room ID

Second they initially claim it was my fault they said I can't put my bicycle there. WHEREFORE they the security made me move my bike four times in their place of conformity.

Third I ask them and told them I can't do it today maybe you can help me getting my bike back and I have important meeting they the management and security refused and kept blaming me and told me I hav to process it within 24 hours which resulted of missed opportunities and further loss
